The Certificate is a two-year program designed for lay and ordained women and men who are already serving in ministry or are considering a call to ministry. The program is offered in New York and New Jersey in English, and Spanish and French/Creole at some sites; classes meet on Saturdays, week-day evenings, and on-line. Courses are taught by a faculty who are academically qualified and committed to the church. Students who successfully complete the program may receive credits at several colleges and universities in the metropolitan area.

- Provides theological education for Christian growth with an emphasis on the Bible, The City, and the World.
- Designed for those exploring their call or season in ministry.
- Explore new ways to share faith while affirming historic commitments.
- Offered in multiple sites throughout New York City and Northern New Jersey, and on-line.
